NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY
Graduate Teacher Education Program (GTEP)
Fischler School of Education and Human Services

Dear Prospective NSU Student:

Thank you for your interest in the Graduate Teacher Education Program (GTEP) offered in The Bahamas by the Fischler School of Education and Human Services (FSEHS). We have attached some information that is pertinent to the GTEP master's programs to assist you through your inquiry, application and admission process.

If you need further information about our GTEP program offered in The Bahamas, please contact Ms. Juliett Reid at 242-364-6766, 242-364-6772 or by e-mail at nsu-bahamas@nsu.nova.edu. The information may be also be readily accessed by visiting our website at <http://www.schoolofed.nova.edu/bah/>

We look forward to having you as a part of the NSU family and are prepared to help you meet your educational goals.

Sincerely,

Liezette Abel-Ruffin

GRADUATE TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM
MASTER'S PROGRAMS IN THE BAHAMAS

Master of Science in Education with Specialization in Teaching & Learning

1. Duration: Eighteen to twenty-four from the beginning of the program.

Classes begin when there are enough participants (students) to begin a new cohort (group). New cohorts (groups) begin at various times in the fall and spring semester depending on student demand.
2. Class Structure: Each course is approximately eight weeks in duration with three weekends of on-site instructions. Friday evening and Saturday class times are as follows:
 - Fridays - 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
 - Saturdays - 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Current Class Locations:

 - St. Andrew's School - Nassau, Bahamas
 - Bishop Michael Eldon High School - Freeport, Bahamas
(Formerly Freeport Anglican High School)
3. Instructors: Instructions are provided by lecturers from the NSU Main Campus. Local lecturers are used as appropriate.
4. Course Structure: Students usually register and take one course at a time which may lead to two (2) or three classes per semester. Each instructor may vary in their form of evaluation. However, students receiving a TERI loan must register for the entire semester at one time in order to be eligible for loan funds. Registration takes place during the registration period in the preceding semester.

The program consists of 36 credit hours (ten 3-credit courses and a 6-credit practicum). Course descriptions attached.
5. Books/Materials: Textbooks and selected materials required for the course are provided by the University and are included in your fee structure.
6. Practicum: The practicum (INED 691 & INED 692) is done in conjunction with your coursework. In order to register for your practicum, you must obtain a "B" or better in the educational research class and you must be in good academic standing. The entire practicum process must be completed in same academic year. This includes a proposal and report which is further explained when you begin the program and in the course descriptions attached. The entire practicum is 6 credits which are divided into two parts.
7. Tuition and Fees:
 - Application Fee
The non-refundable application fee of US$50.00 must accompany the application. Please note that this fee must be paid by US$ draft or US$ check. All checks and drafts must be made payable to Nova Southeastern University.

- Tuition
The proposed tuition rate for 2006/2007 academic year is US $336 per credit. A payment/course schedule is provided prior to the beginning of each semester. To avoid any late fees or service charges, payment is due upon registration of each course.
- Book fees
Each course carries a US$95 book fee and is due at the time of registration. Tuition and fees must be paid up to date in order to receive books for the following course.
- University fees
Each semester includes a US$15 registration fee and US$250 student services fee.
- Graduation Fee
A US$75 fee is required at the end of the program to complete the degree conferral process.

Tuition/Fees are payable in US$ or Bahamian dollars at Royal Bank in The Bahamas. Due dates for fees are outlined in the course schedule given at the beginning of the program. Credit card paying students are required to pay in US$ only. All checks and drafts should be made payable to Nova Southeastern University.

TUITION/FEES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE.

8. Qualification: Students admitted to the Graduate Teacher Education Program (GTEP) in The Bahamas must meet the following admissions requirements:
- possess an earned baccalaureate or graduate degree from a regionally accredited college or university in the United States or must have a baccalaureate degree evaluated as being equivalent to the US degree from a regionally accredited college or university. See alternative admissions criteria below.
 - provide official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended
 - a minimum cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 2.5 (on a 4.0 scale) is required for all students. See CGPA clarification and explanation below.
 - submit two letters of recommendation (from two different people) that attest to the applicant's ability to handle graduate study (forms attached)
 - submit a completed application form accompanied by a US $50.00 non-refundable application fee
9. Contact : Ms. Juliatt Reid at nsu-bahamas@nsu.nova.edu , 242-364-6766, or 242-364-6772

Alternate Admission Criteria

If you have earned a degree at a school that is not accredited by one of the regional or international accrediting associations/universities, you will need to submit the following information and documentation to petition to receive admission into a Fischler School of Education and Human Services program at Nova Southeastern University.

Option One

- 1) Submit an admission application and include a $50.00 non-refundable application fee payment payable to NSU.
- 2) Send an official course-by-course evaluation with cumulative GPA, by one of the following organizations:
 - Josef Silny & Associates, Inc. Available online at: <http://www.jsilny.com/>
 - World Education Services. Available online at: <http://www.wes.org/nova.asp>
- 3) If the evaluation is not favorable, (i.e., does not indicate equivalency to a bachelor of science or a master of science degree), applicants must complete the career portfolio.

All applicants who have not earned a master's degree (for entry into an Ed.S. or doctoral program) or bachelor's degree (for entry into a master's program) from an accredited college or university must produce a portfolio prior to admission to the program. This portfolio must demonstrate academic and pedagogical growth appropriate for entry into the chosen program of study. Those applicants whose main job responsibilities are administrative in nature will modify their evidence to reflect the clientele they serve. Upon submission, the portfolio becomes property of the University and will not be returned to the applicant. For a guide to the type and amount of the evidence required, please contact the Office of Enrollment Services at 1-800-262-1546.

Upon completion of the portfolio, send it to:

Nova Southeastern University
Fischler School of Education and Human Services
Office of Enrollment Services – Admissions Dept.
1750 NE 167th Street
North Miami Beach, FL 33162

Option Two

- 1) Submit an admission application and include a $50.00 non-refundable application fee payment payable to NSU.
- 2) Send an official evaluation directly to NSU at the address above from one of the following documents:
 - The National Board of License for Teachers and Principals (NBL)
 - Continuing Teachers License from Merkos Linyonei Chinuch International Board of License (MERKOS)
- 3) Submit a $350.00 portfolio evaluation fee, payable to NSU.
- 4) Submit the Career Portfolio.
- 5) Complete a writing assessment.

Career Portfolio

The Career Portfolio is a compilation of evidence that documents the attainment of a level of knowledge, experience, and expertise. The Career Portfolio contains evidence that is appropriate for entry into a master's program in education. It is a collection of various artifacts used as evidence of acquisition of professional teaching skills, as defined in the Accomplished Practices. The portfolio is your property. It is your responsibility to ensure that the evidence is in accordance with the procedures stated in the portfolio guide that is available upon request from the FSEHS-Office of Academic Affairs.

OR

Option Three

- 1) Submit an admission application and include a $50.00 non-refundable application fee payment payable to NSU.
- 2) Send an official transcript from one of the following institutions directly to NSU.
 - Binah Institute
 - College of the Bahamas

- Dalhousie University
- GC Foster College of Physical Education
- Institute of Management and Production
- Jamaican Theological Seminary
- McMaster University
- Northern Caribbean University
- The University of Alberta
- The University of Guelph
- The University of Guyana
- The University of Ontario
- The University of Ottawa
- The University of Technology
- The University of Toronto
- The University of Victoria
- The University of the West Indies (all campuses)
- The University of Windsor
- York University

NOTE: The institutions listed above are subject to change without prior notification.

CGPA CLARIFICATION AND EXPLANATION

In an effort to provide clarification and an explanation of the GPA calculation for undergraduate students entering a master's degree program, the following procedures are outlined below:

1. Applicants applying to a master's degree program in education must have an earned undergraduate degree from a regionally or internationally accredited institution. The degree must demonstrate a 2.5 cumulative grade point average (CGPA) based on a 4.0 grading scale in order to qualify for admission. This is true for transcript evaluations from Josef Silney and Associates, and World Education Services.
 - a. If the undergraduate transcript does not indicate the CGPA, it will be necessary for you to calculate the CGPA with the grading system key (i.e. transcript key) provided on the transcript.
 - b. If the undergraduate transcript does not indicate the GPA for the corresponding grade or if the grading system key is not submitted with the transcript (official or unofficial), it will be necessary contact the institution to obtain the grading system key to conduct the CGPA calculation.
2. Applicants applying to a master's degree program in education with foreign credentials must provide an official credential evaluation with a course-by-course analysis and include the CGPA.
 - a. If the evaluation does not indicate the CGPA, it will be necessary to notify the applicant that the evaluation is not complete, thus requiring the applicant to resubmit the appropriate documents (i.e. evaluation with CGPA) for the purpose of admission.
 - b. If the evaluation does not list a course-by-course analysis with the CGPA, it will be necessary for you to notify the applicant that the evaluation is not complete, thus requiring the applicant to resubmit the appropriate documents (i.e. evaluation with course-by-course analysis and CGPA) for the purpose of admission.
3. Applicants that have a CGPA below the 2.5 minimum GPA requirements must provide Graduate Record Exam (GRE) test scores with a combined score of 1000 (for the verbal and quantitative scales only).
 - a. If the applicant does not earn a 1000 on the GRE (for the verbal and quantitative scales only) the applicant is eligible for provisional admission provided that the all other admission criteria has been satisfied.
 - b. Students are eligible to register for a maximum of six (6) credit hours for the first term of enrollment. Students are eligible for full admission status upon earning a grade of B or better (3.0 minimum CGPA) in each course during the first term or enrollment. Students who do not earn a grade of B or better in each course will be dismissed from the program.
 - c. Full admission will be granted after the student has completed the minimum six (6) credit hours in the first term of enrollment. *This will be determined by Banner reports.
4. International applicants whose CGPA is less than a 2.5 are exempt from the GRE requirement. These applicants may be granted conditional admission solely based on the undergraduate degree documentation. Please note; international applicants must then provide evidence of the TOEFL or IELTS.
5. Applicants whose previous institution is currently listed under the Alternative Admissions Requirements, are exempt from additional degree, course evaluation and CGPA. These applicants may be granted conditional admission solely based on the undergraduate degree documentation.
6. Applicants whose native language is not English are required to demonstrate English proficiency. The following standardized tests currently satisfy the university's English requirement for nonnative English speakers:
 - a. Applicants from the Dominican Republic, Korea, and Mexico would not be required to submit the GRE or MAT; however, they would be required to complete the TOEFL or IELTS.
 - b. Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) 213 on the computer-based test; 79-80 on the Internet based test.

International English Language Testing System (IELTS) 6.0 on the test module. For more information regarding The English Language Proficiency Testing please go to: http://www.nova.edu/cwis/registrar/iss/english_proficiency.html

GRADUATE TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM – THE BAHAMAS
TEACHING AND LEARNING COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course #	Course Title	Credits	Course Description
CUR 526	Educational Research for Practitioners	3	This course emphasizes the skills needed by school-based practitioners in accessing, reviewing and utilizing research. These skills include the use of bibliographic databases, interpreting published research for applications in the classroom, developing objectives for evaluating applied research projects, and collecting and analyzing classroom data. The course also covers the sources of published research and data-gathering techniques unique to the participant's area of specialization.
ETEC 602	Technology and the School Curriculum	3	This course examines the role of technology in the curriculum and its impact on school change. Research on the design of computer aided instruction and computer utilization in the K-12 classroom will be explored. Methods of educational software evaluation, selection, and acquisition are introduced. Students will apply the modern technologies and principles of curriculum development in producing programs of instruction.
EDU 502	Educational Psychology	3	This course traces the process of physical, cognitive, and social-emotional growth from birth to adulthood. Emphasis is placed on the implications of developmental processes for the design of appropriate curriculum and instruction.
CUR 506	Curriculum and Instruction	3	Using the principles of curriculum development and related research, students will develop a plan for a unit of instruction, including a needs assessment, use of resources, implementation specifications, and assessment of instructional effectiveness. In addition, this course covers the topics above as they apply specifically to the participant's area of specialization.
CUR 591	Assessment and Evaluation	3	This course emphasizes the practical skills in student evaluation required for curriculum planning in the classroom and the school. Areas covered include understanding of content measured by state achievement tests, reading and interpreting data, and using data to improve student achievement. Emphasis will also be placed on the development of effective teacher-made tests, the utilization of standardized test results in the development of intervention and remediation strategies for both individuals and groups of students, and recommended instruments and alternative practices for the assessment of multicultural students.
EDU 503	Classroom Management and Organization	3	This course assists students in integrating teaching methods, principles of curriculum development and evaluation, and methods for dealing with student behavior into a cohesive, well-managed educational program. The course also covers techniques for communicating with parents and methods for working effectively within the school's administrative structure.
ESE 600	Survey of Exceptionalities of Children and Youth	3	This course provides students with fundamental information on the history, laws, policies, and practices in exceptional student education and on specific categories of exceptionality, including definitions, prevalence, causes, assessment techniques, educational treatments strategies, and current and future trends in the field of exceptional student education.

RED 575	Contemporary Foundations of Reading	3	Students will become familiar with current theories of learning as related to reading at the elementary and secondary levels with an emphasis upon learning styles, cognitive development models, and computer-based learning experiences in reading. Adaptive instruction as it applies to meeting individual needs will also be explored.
INED 500	School and Society - Comparative Education Systems	3	The purpose of this course is to examine various K-12 educational systems in the global society as we enter the 21 st Century. Students will be asked to compare schooling in various societies and examine how the educational systems are organized to meet political, social and economic agenda of the 21 st Century. Students will recommend strategies to ensure capacity and compliance of their home systems. Students will also appraise their own educational systems within the global educational community with ramifications for standards, development and curriculum alignment. Research and presentation skills as well as the use of technology will be emphasized.
EDL 510	School Leadership	3	Students will explore and demonstrate knowledge of basic theories of leadership, change process, group dynamics, and motivation.
INED 691	Applied Research Practicum – Part 1	3	Part One: Participants will examine both the art and science of professional development for educators. Teachers will engage in analysis of current classroom issues and challenges to explore and practice action research methods as a logical extension of classroom instruction. Integral to the process will be the development of Action Research Project proposal project design. Concurrently, participants will engage in reflective insight in the context of personal professional development and growth.
INED 692	Applied Research Practicum – Part 2	3	Part Two: Participants will examine both the art and science of professional development for educators. Teachers will engage in analysis of current classroom issues and challenges to explore and practice action research methods as a logical extension of classroom instruction. Integral to the process will be the development of Action Research Project proposal project design. Concurrently, participants will engage in reflective insight in the context of personal professional development and growth, and will initiate organization and development of the comprehensive professional portfolio.
