Parent Teacher Conferences

Have you received a note from your child's teacher asking you to come for a conference? What is the first thing you thought of? "What has my child done now, what kind of trouble is he in?"

It doesn't always mean trouble. Go ahead and have that meeting. It will be a good time for you to see how your child is doing and you can tell the teacher important things about your child.

HINTS FOR GOOD PARENT TEACHER CONFERENCES .....

- Plan on what you want to ask the teacher.
- If English is not your native language take a neighbor or relative with you.
- Ask for ways you can help your child at home.
- If the teacher uses words that you don't understand, don't be bashful, ask what they mean.
